

RI Society of CPAs 2021 Scholarship Application Process

The RI Society of CPAs has opened its scholarship application process for the year 2021 for students from Rhode Island pursuing an accounting or finance major at any private or public college or university. The student must certify they are from RI, but they can be enrolled in an accounting or finance program at ANY college or university, regardless of it being located outside of Rhode Island.

Carl W. Christiansen Scholarship

Applicant may attend any accredited college or university.

The late Carl W. Christiansen, CPA established a scholarship fund in 1974. The purpose of this fund was to assist students who hope to join the public accounting profession, by granting scholarships to help defray the cost of a college education.

Cheryl A. Ruggiero Scholarship

Open to female applicants who may be attending any accredited college or university.

A scholarship fund was established in 2005 for the late Cheryl A. Ruggiero, CPA. The purpose of this fund is to assist female accounting students who hope to join the public accounting profession, by granting scholarships to help defray the cost of a college education.

KLR/Brian A. Altomari Memorial Fund Scholarship

Applicant must be attending a RI university or college.

A scholarship grant was established in 2018 for the KLR/Brian A. Altomari Memorial Fund. The scholarship, which is dispensed through the RI Foundation, is intended for a student attending or planning to enroll in an accredited college or university in Rhode Island who will be a major in accounting.

Criteria for Applicants

- Applicants must be a legal resident of the State of Rhode Island and a citizen of the United States.
- Applicant must demonstrate an interest in accounting during the undergraduate/graduate years.
- Applicant must obtain an overall academic average of 3.0, and in the opinion of the Accounting Department faculty, demonstrate the potential to become a valued member of the Public Accounting Profession.

Guidelines

- Complete the application in full. Use the reverse side if additional space is necessary.
- Submit a short personal statement that reflects your interest in the Accounting profession.
